

DRESS REHEARSAL

Wednesday - May 6, 2026

Lynn City Hall Auditorium - Johnson Street Entrance (REAR DOOR)

Performing students and one parent/guardian only are allowed to enter through the Stage Door. Dress Rehearsal is not open for spectators except for the one parent or guardian. When standing on Johnson Street facing the side of City Hall, the Stage Door will be the door at the very rear of building to the right. The one parent will need a Gray Dress Rehearsal ticket to enter. This ticket will be in your "Yellow Envelope / Recital Packet", which you will be distributed April 28 – May 4 (awards week).

Students should come to Dress Rehearsal dressed in her/his first or only costume, tights, with dance shoes and accessories already on. Parents take all other belongings, so they don't get lost! Students will be escorted by a faculty member, volunteer, or a Dance Company student to the balcony where they will have a reserved seat and will be always supervised. Do not send students with food or drinks on either night. Dressing room students may have a water bottle in dressing room only. We will have water in the balcony.

Students who have multiple costumes, should come dressed in first costume to be performed, and bring other costumes in a clearly marked garment bag with full name and dance classes listed on the outside of garment bag (Large label/print please). Example: SUZY JONES – THURSDAY 4, SATURDAY 12

Students who have more than 1 costume, will have an assigned Dressing Room. Parents, please assist your student as you come through the dressing area to find her room and drop garment bag in the room with them.

Parents will go directly to the main auditorium and students will be escorted to the balcony where they will sit with their class and working parent/volunteer.

IMPORTANT "Dress Rehearsal" CALL TIMES:

Faculty/Volunteer/Workers – 4:10pm

Students – 4:30pm

Dress Rehearsal Show will begin & will run in order of show! - 5:00pm

Parking lot on Johnson Street will be open to park when City Hall closes at 4pm. Allow them to leave.

The Dress Rehearsal will run in exact order of the recital. Students will be seated in the balcony with my working parents, friends, and/or family. This area will be off limits to anyone who is not performing or working/volunteering our shows. Security and safety are my number one priority during the dress rehearsal and recital. Please be patient and follow all procedures to ensure a positive experience for us all. Your children can be picked up and released to the one parent during one of the designated Intermissions only or at the very end of the show. This way the lights will come on and it is easier and safer for the release.

Please send only one parent to the balcony to pick up your child. Parents must present the "White Pick-Up Ticket" provided (in your yellow envelope). Anyone who does not have their ticket will have to wait until the end of the show for a faculty member or myself to recognize you as the guardian and then release your child to you. Again, following the instructions will ensure the safety of your child and the dismissal to be smooth. You need this ticket for both shows. No duplicates will be issued, so please keep in a safe place!

Students with two or more costumes, please make sure all costumes, tights, shoes, and accessories are organized and retrieved when picking up your children. You need everything for Friday's performance. Please check everything before you exit the building. Dressing areas can be very chaotic if a student is not organized. ON DRESS REHEARSAL ONLY, STUDENTS MAY ENTER THE MAIN AUDITORIUM WITH THEIR PARENT AFTER BEING SECURLY DISMISSED FROM THE BALCONY DURING AN INTERMISSION (OBVIOUSLY, AFTER THEY COMPLETE THEIR LAST DANCE)!
