

Olivia Sousa

Olivia has been dancing for 15 years at the studio and graduated high school in 2018. She has worked as a ballet assistant for two years as well as a substitute teacher on occasion. In 2016 and 2017, Olivia performed the role of Gwendolyn throughout the city of Lynn with the Senior Company and author of Gwendolyn the Graceful Pig, David Rottenberg. She has studied Jazz, Tap, Ballet, Hip-Hop and Contemporary at LeAnne Leslie's School of Theatrical Dance and is thrilled to be able to pass her knowledge on to the younger students. In addition, her experience at the studio has helped her to be successful on the Swampscott High School Dance Team both as a dancer and as a captain of the team. Olivia will continue to progress in dance at Salem State University while she works toward her Masters in Early Childhood Education and Dance.
